

AGMA RELIEF FUND

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

For twelve years, I have been a proud member of the American Guild of Musical Artists (AGMA). Today, as Chair of this year's AGMA Relief Fund Holiday Drive, I implore you to join me in donating to the AGMA Relief Fund. As you know, the AGMA Relief Fund provides us, and those depending on us, emergency assistance to weather hardships that interrupt or threaten to destroy even the most established careers.

I have been performing since age 11, not only singing in opera, but on Broadway and in films. The performing arts community, including AGMA singers, dancers, actors and staging staff comprises my artistic family. I care deeply about their well-being. Injuries, illnesses, accidents, pandemic-related industry shutdowns and natural disasters have set many AGMA artists back temporarily, some permanently.

Since that fateful day in March 2020, when our artistic venues were shut down and AGMA members were suddenly and completely out of work, the Relief Fund was able to assist a large wave of AGMA artists in need. The Relief Fund was able to jump into action immediately and help as many members as possible thanks to years of philanthropic support.

The AGMA Relief Fund, which is solely dependent on our donations, was founded in 1945 by a group of compassionate, world-renowned performers to provide a safety net to our members. Any donations made are tax deductible. You can also support the Relief Fund by sharing this letter with your network. If we all do what we can, we can ensure the future of the Relief Fund.

Together, we can build upon the Founders' visionary legacy by creating our own individual legacies of support for the AGMA Relief Fund through planned giving and donations throughout the year. Thank you for joining me in support of the AGMA Relief Fund.

I wish you the best for happiness and success in the New Year. Happy Holidays!
